

PROPOSITION

Being Framed By Commercial Club to Be Presented By Fiscal Court.

The turnpike proposition has been discussed for several months, in Southern Kentucky. Every town and county has been indulging in hopes and enjoying the beautiful pictures of imaginary pikes. Various propositions have been submitted; various roads suggested, but up to date no action that leads to realization of such blessings has been taken in this county.

Our Commercial Club is now working on plans which will be submitted to the Fiscal Court at its April meeting, and it is to be hoped that every member of the Court will realize the immense worth of good substantial roads and the importance of their immediate construction. The needs of the county cannot be secured in a short period of time. Good roads cannot be built all over the county in one or two years, but a system can be established that will make a wonderful difference inside of a few years. Close fist ed economy, if longer indulged, will prove a costly mistake. So long as selfish and personal interests override public good and public advancement, so long we will all grope along in the mire and mud. The Fiscal Court ought to levy the highest tax within the limits of law, and use the same in making pikes. A plan will be worked out by the Commercial Club which will be submitted to the Court. The people are willing to be taxed for roads and bridges, and we trust that the Court will be willing to impose the tax and judiciously spend it.

HENNINGER--WINFREY.

Last Saturday Evening in the parlors of the Read House, Chattanooga, Tenn., Miss Lucile Heninger and Mr. Irvin E. Winfrey, of Monticello, were united in marriage, Ira M. Boswell officiating.

The bride will be remembered by many of the younger people, having attended the Lindsay-Wilson Training School, this city, several years ago.

Mr. Winfrey is assistant cashier of the Citizens' National Bank of Monticello, and is a brother of Mr. Logan Winfrey, this city.

SETTLE 'EM AT HOME.

The trouble between some small boys last week was settled by a full hearing of the case in the Court House, and showed the importance of a curfew law in this town. Boys are boys, some very rude and some very much so, while but few, if any, are as considerate as the average parent may believe. It is hard to tell what course is best to pursue in a case like the one of last week, but our judgment is that the Court House is not the best place to settle such troubles or inflict adequate punishment for misdemeanor. It ought to be done at home, and in accordance with the direction given by Solomon.

AFTERNOON RECEPTION.

Mrs. Bettie Butler entertained quite a number of her friends at an afternoon reception last Saturday. The entertainment consisted of conundrums, games, etc., and delightful refreshments were served. Covers were laid for the following: Mesdames R. F. Paull, Cecil Hurt, Starlight Murrell, May Wilson, Misses—Clark, Jennie Garrett, Minnie Kemp, Lena Taylor, Alice Walker.

per cent piece which was coined in the year 1849, it is one sixteenth of an inch thick and is as large in circumference as a quarter dollar.

ENOUGH FOR HIM.

A Lincoln county man last Spring became infatuated with the rapturous stories of the West, teeming with prosperity and undeveloped wealth, disposed of his Kentucky interests and located in Indian Territory. There he purchased a farm and cultivated it to find that its powers of production were about half as prolific as the soil of Kentucky and that the markets are much inferior. In fact the same grade of corn that is now selling in Kentucky at 60 cents per bushel is a drag on the Indian Territory market at half that amount—30 cents. So this now wiser Kentuckian contends that one acre of good land in this section is worth four in the West, and he has the figures on it and figures won't lie.—Harrodsburg Herald.

TICKY CATTLE.

Capt. Hugh Thomason, sub-chief inspector for the Bureau of Animal Industry, is now in the infested cattle-tick district along the bordering counties of Kentucky and Tennessee making investigations and enforcing the new quarantine law when necessary. From reports, the ticks have spread, and it will require some time to stamp them out. Several sections of Cumberland county were quarantined last Fall, and it is believed that the infection was overcome in that county. The penalty fixed by the laws of Tennessee for violating the quarantine law is a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500 for each offense.—Louisville Times.

PECULIAR FREAK.

Mr. W. S. Sallee, one of our prosperous farmers, relates a peculiar freak from a Holstein cow. It is this way: Mr. Sallee was milking the cow a few evenings ago, one he had milked for several years and during all that time she had never kicked, hooked nor run, but that record was smashed on this occasion. All of a sudden she took a run out of the lot and into a small thicket nearby, stopping suddenly and placing her head near the ground while the irate milkman was following with a stick to inflict punishment, but to his surprise the old Holstein had led him to one of his fine hogs that was nearing the end of its earthly existence.

After finding out the intent of the faithful old cow the rod was not used and she walked back into the lot where she stood calmly for her milk to be drawn. Evidently the cow intended and did notify her owner of the condition of the hog, but too late to save its life.

"MEMORY SOCIABLE."

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will give a "memory Sociable" at the home of Mrs. W. F. Patterson, Friday evening, March 22nd, 7 to 10. They will be a candy booth, light refreshments will be served and a free will offering will be taken. The patronage of the public is solicited.

BALL GAME.

The Marydale Ball Club, of Louisville, will play the Columbia Club two games, Friday and Saturday, May 17 and 18.

COMING TO COLUMBIA

WHERE ARE THE FIXED RULES

Relative To The Young Manhood of Today To Be Found—Principle The Object.

Editor News:

I drop these few lines to your valuable paper with the hopes that the thoughts advanced will prove beneficial to some young man in that section of country.

The only fixed rules upon the above subject which seem the most advisable to my mind in the makeup of a young man's character at this day and time, is soberness; honesty; fair dealing; integrity; politeness; pleasant manners and address; self respect, and a regard for the opinions of men whose years are more mature than his, and who have gray locks, and a great deal more experience in the various walks than you have had.

What a contrast in young men, those who expect to make their mark in the world, and to have the respect of all who know them, are always found in good company, their manners are most agreeable to all, with whom they come in contact. They have the respect of much older men, and their honesty and integrity builds for them a character in this life, which will stand the stormy onslaughts of a whole army of fellows who would purposely injure their characters for their own greed or gain.

N-w, on the other hand, what can a young man expect in this life, who does not try to make out of himself what his mother would desire him to be.

The best friend a boy has on earth is his mother, and if he breaks her heart by his wrong doing, he ought to have a goodly portion of hell fire, throughout the ages of eternity, it matters not what kind of an infernal excuse he may try to concoct in his favor. No young man is compelled to do a wrong deed, and if he does it, the cause is because he wants to. There is no other excuse.

A mother's love, and a mother's interest in her son, are two of the grandest and most noble inspirations that can come to any boy, and any young man who will not prize them higher than any worldly pleasure, is not worthy of being called the son of a noble mother.

ELLIOTT

Thoroughbred Stallion Is In Hands Of J. H. Smith, Fonthill, Ky.

The Kentucky Breeding Bureau shipped last week to J. H. Smith, at Pont Hill, Russell County, the thoroughbred stallion Elliott, whose services will be donated to the people of this section.

The Bureau was organized several weeks ago in order to help improve the general class of horse stock of the state. To that end it is purchasing thoroughbred stallions of such size, conformation and temperament as to produce excellent general purpose horses when bred to the common mares of those sections. The stallions are sent. So far as the service is concerned the service is free. No money is to be paid for the use of the stallion, but the owner of the mare is to furnish the feed and care of the foal.

he and Mr. Hopper went to Lexington where they interviewed officers of the Breeding Bureau and secured the promise of early consideration at their hands. The horse sent to Russell County, Elliott, is a seven-year-old chestnut horse by Racine from Aurelia II by Widdle. He is a splendid type of thoroughbred stallion and was a race horse of real class. He was raced for five seasons by M. J. Daly and won a total of thirty-seven races, was second twenty-four times and third sixteen times. His winnings amounted to over $25,000. Among other stakes which stand to his credit are Lissak Handicap twice, in both of which races he defeated the famous race horse Claude, the Pleasant Plate, the Norfolk Purse as well as a number of other notable races which he won from good horses. Elliott was especially noted for his ability to go a long distance, a trait which should prove of genuine value to him as a sire giving to his get endurance, courage and stamina. He can be seen at Mr. Smith's place at Pont Hill by any who care to see him and it will be well worth a trip of some distance to look at so good a horse.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Wm. F. Jeffries & Sons—the Hardware and Implement people of Columbia. They are so well and favorably known in this part of the state as to enjoy the confidence of the entire people, and their large and complete assortment of goods keep in stock measures up to the full requirements of the many who give them an unstinted patronage. A fare square deal is their policy. Read their ad.

Rev. J. A. Hogarty has filed suit in the Marion Circuit Court against Mr. John Kearns for fifty thousand dollars damage. The suit is the result of statements alleged to have been made by Kearns charging that Father Hogarty had bought a negro's vote for the temperance cause with a suit of clothes.

Mr. Cortland T. Vaughan, of Greensburg, and Miss Jessie Buchanan were married in the parlors of the Potter House, Bowling Green, Wednesday, March 7th.

TACKY PARTY

And Ice Cream Supper At Columbia Hotel Proves a Success.

The Ice Cream Supper and Tacky party given by the Columbia Ball Club at the Columbia Hotel was a decided success from every point of view. The large building was filled to the utmost capacity; everyone enjoying the occasion, and the Ball Club realizing a neat sum.

Music was furnished by the Band, which received many compliments, and Messrs. J. B. Barbee and Edgar Reed operated two splendid graphophones. The costumes were a continual source of merriment, and it was with considerable difficulty that the "tackiest" dressed lady, was selected the prize finally being awarded to Miss Edna Lewis. The contest for the prettiest girl proved to be very spirited, but Miss Lula Breeding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Breeding, of near Columbia, received the largest number of votes. The prize for the "tackiest" boy was awarded to Mr. A. S. Chewing, and in the contest for the ugliest man, Mr. Geo. N. Rosenfield, clerk at the Columbia Hotel, came out victor.

ANNUAL CONGREGATION MEETING OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

At the annual congregation meeting of the Presbyterian Church, Sunday March 24th, 11 a. m., three elders and one deacon will be elected, ordained and installed. A Board of Trustees and four ushers will be appointed.

The members of the congregation are urged to be present and take part in the election of these additional officers; also to decide as to whether a call shall be extended to Rev. J. F. Claycomb to become Pastor of the congregation. Other items of interest to the congregation will be attended to. Services at 7 o'clock also. Public cordially invited.

EARLY HISTORY OF MELVIN WHITE

(By U. L. Taylor.)

In undertaking to write a history of a man still living, one must be exceedingly particular. For if perchance he should write something not true, then the man himself, would be able to contradict it. In approaching an undertaking like this I very much feel my inability. Would that thy pen O! Melvin were ours, then would the life and scenes, and escapades of this man go down the ages clothed in finer and more classic language than I am able to command.

Melvin L. White was born about fifty years ago, at a very early period of his life. There was nothing remarkable about his birth, except a precociousness that began to manifest itself in the very beginning. I have been told by persons who were present, that before he was an hour old, without any previous training, he could cry equal to a veteran—I have also been told that he cut all of his teeth without the help of surgeon. I have assurances that this is true, for being his father's family physician I was never called on to assist in these unpleasant exercises. He cut his wisdom teeth before he was ten years old, showing that he was as wise at ten as other boys at twenty years old.

In his very young days he was a frequenter at his neighbor, George Burpo's blacksmith shop. When only eighteen months old he went into the shop and picked up a piece of red-hot iron, and dropped it without having to be told. Burpo laughed at him for dropping the iron so quickly, and right then and there, young as he was, he registered a blood red oath that he would get even with him if it took him ten years. He bided his time. He learned to read when only a few years old, and was a great lover of history. He read of Washington, the hatchet and the cherry tree; he read of Abe Lincoln's rail-splitting possibilities; he read of Garfield, driving the mule on the canal; and he read of Davie Crockett, Indian killing proclivities, and he felt like imitating all these great men, except Abe Lincoln's rail-splitting experiences—he drew the line there. He came to the conclusion that there were other and the red hot iron. Our hero was now about eight years old, and he had several confederates by the name of Burbridge. The boys were playing one evening after Burpo had left the shop, and found and killed a very large and venomous snake. In snake time, Burpo always went barefooted, with his breeches rolled up.

The floor of his shop was native dirt, and the roof of clap boards was very low. Under Melvin's directions the snake was brought and stretched at full length just inside the door sill. I don't know whether I had been informed, or not of the contemplated fun—at any rate I was passing at the time, Geo. came up singing the best that a stuttering man could sing, "Show Pity Lord O Lord Forgive." Having no shutter, the shop did not have to be opened. The authors of the mischief had secreted themselves behind logs and stumps, and left only me to witness the wild scenes that followed. The plot worked to perfection. His bare foot stepped square onto the snake. Just as he felt the cold, his eye caught sight of the poisonous reptile. He screamed a scream that would have done justice to a mountain catamount, and jumped a jump that tangled his head in the boards of the roof, he let loose a volley of oaths and imprecations the most awful that I have ever heard from a really good Christian, pious man such as he at that time pretended to be. He said he knew well who had done it and was determined to turn every one of them to the jury, he was. He then described the snake to me, I sympathized with him, and asked him if the snake was dead? Yes sir, said George, it was dead, it was, but it was a berry, berry dangerous snake. Melvin was avenged.

FEDERAL COURT.

News Concerning This Section of the State—Tyler Montgomery Not Guilty.

Jesse Johnson, of Taylor county, was found guilty of operating an illicit still, and the judgment of the court was that he should pay a fine of $300 and serve three months in jail. Johnson is a tall, sallow man, lame from rheumatism, and walks with a long hickory stick, which he cut from the woods himself. He looked sad at all times and had nothing to say when sentence was passed other than that he desired to be confined in jail at Campbellsville, the county seat of Taylor county. He will have to serve about nine months in all.

Tyler Montgomery, of Adair county, was tried on the charge of retailing whisky without paying the special tax. In accordance with the instructions of the Judge the jury found Montgomery not guilty as charged. In instructing the jury Judge Evans said:

"Gentlemen of the jury, it appears from the evidence that the defendant has not been proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, although it appears that he ran a little close to the wind. He had better be a little careful hereafter. You will find him not guilty."

Franklin Passmore, of Adair county, was fined $100 and given thirty days in jail for retailing liquor without paying the special Government tax.—Courier Journal.

IN MEMORIAN

DIED IN IDAHO.

Thomas A. Morris, formerly an Adair county boy, son of James F. and Emeline Morris died in Boise City, Idaho Jan. 20th 1907, of meningitis. He was a carpenter by trade and a short time before he was taken, fell from a scaffold bruising his head which caused an abscess to form on the brain. He was taken with a severe pain in his head on Thursday night and before morning was unconscious, died Sunday morning without regaining consciousness.

He was born near Columbia Aug. 27 1859, was married in Milton, Ill. to Miss Mollie Hawkins, Sept. 4th 1887. He leaves 4 children, his wife and one baby having died four years ago. He also leaves 3 brothers, Owen, of Pittsfield, Ill., Milam, of Midvale, Idaho and Garrett, of Carroll county, Mo., and two sisters, Mollie Rosenbaum, of Bogard, Mo., and Theresa Terp, of Concord, Cal. He was a member of the Methodist church.

His sister, TERESA.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Josie Mae Bradshaw was born May 6th, 1883, died at her father's, W. N. Stokes, in Horseshoe Bottom, January the 29th, 1907, of that dreadful disease consumption. Her husband preceded her to the grave just three years and five days, he died with the same disease.

She leaves a little daughter, father, mother, brothers and sisters to mourn their loss. She bore her suffering with as much fortitude as any one in her condition. She confessed her faith in Christ one year before her death, and often expressed herself in regard to her future after passing over the river. It looks so hard that one so young as she should be cut down in the bloom of youth and her little Mary needing the love of a mother so bad to help her to fight the battles and difficulties in her life, but God's will must be done; he knows best for his children. We can only live and trust in the Lord that we may meet her in that land where there is no sad parting and we shall never say farewell. May God bless and keep her little child that it may meet her in Heaven.

A. L. and ADDIE STOKES.

IN MEMORIAN.

Thompson Mason was born May 8th, 1815, died March 5th, 1907, it being his eighty-ninth year. The first thirty years of his life was spent in Cumberland county, where he is sincerely mourned by all who knew him. In Adair, his adopted home, all who knew him were staunch friends and were continually with him during his last illness of four months and three days.

The deceased was a conscientious Christian and the sting of death had no fear for him.

To the widow we would say, weep not as one who had no hope, for you shall meet again.

There is in our hearts a void that will never be filled again.

And though the body slumbers here
The soul is safe in Heaven,
A FRIEND.

OBITUARY.

On March the 1st, 1907 a tender messenger came calling Mrs. N. V. Wooten, the beloved wife of Mr. Tom Wooten, home to her Saviour.

Mrs. Wooten had been confined to her room for several months with that dreadful disease consumption. But the summons found her ready and willing to move upward and onward with fuller knowledge and greater happiness. She told her mother if any body asked where she had gone to tell them that she had gone to Heaven. The deceased was a member of the C. P. Church, and was identified with the best social circle of her community. Her charity, kindness and goodness of heart won many friends. We would say to the bereaved husband, mother, brothers and sisters, weep not for her, but let each day be a preparation for a meeting on that beautiful shore where there will be no more good byes.

Weep not for her toil is over,
Weep not that her race is run
God grant that we may rest as sweetly,
When, like hers, our work is done.

Fill then we would yield with gladness
Our loved ones to him to keep,
And rejoice in the sweet assurance,
He giveth his loved ones sleep."

STATE FARMERS INSTITUTE.

Mr. H. B. Garnett Writes Inter-ingly Of Recent Meeting at Shelbyville,

Mr. Editor:

With your permission I will try and give your readers a few items from the State Institute held at Shelbyville, Ky., Feb. 26-7-8.

As this was my first trip to the blue-grass country, I must say that while I saw some nice country that I was somewhat disappointed. Perhaps I was expecting too much owing to having heard it praised so high. After seeing some of it and hearing it priced I see no reason why any Adaircounty farmer should want to sell land at $10 to $30 per acre that with the same cultivation and fertilizing will produce all most as well as theirs that will cost from $50 to $150 per acre.

I reached Shelbyville about 8 o'clock on the night of Feb. 26th, so I missed the first day's exercises. The first thing on the program for the second day was the election of members State Board of Agriculture from first and third appellate districts. Guthrie M. Wilson of Bardstown, the present incumbent, was selected from the third district. I have forgotten the name of the gentleman elected from the first district.

D. C.

This speaker said that to make good roads it was necessary to have a ten ton steel roller that would cost about $2500 and also a muck-machine, and with this machinery it would cost from $5000 up per mile, while no doubt this would make a fine road the cost would be too great for the poor counties of the State. For dirt roads he said there was nothing better than the drag made of 2 split logs fastened together hitched so as to run at a little angle it is said that with this simple drag that 2 or three men living along the road can keep 3 or 4 miles of road in good condition through the entire year with possibly a little while in the winter, when we have rain and freezing weather and not put in more than six days each. What would have been perhaps of as much importance to this section of the country as any thing that was on the program was the use and abuse of commercial fertilizers by Prof. M. A. Scovell. But he had only talked a few moments when they commenced firing questions at him and kept it up so long that he just put in his time answering questions.

Farm sanitation was discussed by Dr. A. T. McCormack. The Dr. said that typhoid fever and consumption could be prevented by proper sanitation and the time was coming when it would be a disgrace, not to the person who had the typhoid fever but to the ones from whom he contracted it. Swine breeding and feeding was discussed by S. E. Morton, of Camden, Ohio. It was largely a technical and scientific discussion based on actual experiment. The discussion of alfalfa by J. E. Wing, of Ohio, and Prof. M. A. Scovell, of Kentucky, brought out many interesting points about this new grass but they differ about the time to sow. Wing claimed he had got the best results from fall seeding, while several thought our falls were generally too dry. That he had the best stand from seed sown March 26.

A movement for clean milk (illustrated with stereopticon views,) by Prof. C. B. Lane, Chief Dairy Division, U. S. Department of Agriculture. What Immigration means to the Farmer, by E. J. Wataon, State Commission of Immigration, Columbia, S. C. and other subjects were discussed in such a way that one had to hear all to understand the subject. To pick out extracts would not give a correct idea of what was intended or said.

The delegates from most of the counties were representative men and practical farmers, with members of the Legislature and the Senate and citizens of Louisville and other points and it was wonderful at the interest taken in every discussion as they would sit and listen sometimes until long after the noon hour. Shelbyville entertained the Institute royally and the delegates left feeling that they have had a very pleasant and profitable meeting.

H. B. GARNETT.

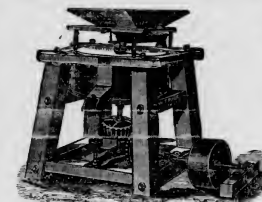

Last Tuesday Mr. Titus Mercer was in town and after spending several hours he proceeded to place several articles, which he had purchased, in his buggy. In so doing it was necessary to use the space under the buggy seat but when he attempted to place the first article under he found, to his surprise, two of his wife's best hens. While they had ample time to escape they seemed to be well contented and Mr. Mercer left with them last evening.

INCORPORATED.

CHAS. S. HARRIS Editor

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interests of the city of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as second class mail matter.

WED., MARCH 20, 1907.

The change of venue in the Hargis case is not the cause of so much criticism of special Judge Carnes, but the manner in which it was made, and the point to which it is to be hauled. The reasons advanced in support of Sandy Hook, are so weak as to discredit the motives of the Judge in the minds of many. So far as we are able to see, the removal of the Hargis case and many others connected, should have been made and carried to a county free as possible from the influences tending to defeat the ends of justice. It is claimed that Elliott county is not such a place, but whether it is or not, the county is too remote from railroads and is an imposition on the witnesses. We do not know Judge Carnes; we cannot measure his motives, but we do not endorse his position in this matter. He has made a blunder for which there is no excuse apparent to a large majority of our people. If he desired to favor the accused, he alone is responsible; if he sought to place the trial where justice would be meted out, he evidently believes in remoteness. At any rate there are those who attach political significance, but Democrats and the Democratic party of this State do not stand for Judge Carnes, nor for the acquittal of the men accused of crime. The men who slew Wm. Goebel, and the ones who murdered Cockrell and Marcum stand on the same footing. In both cases stern justice should be administered. Up to this good day the party, nor the party press has ever attempted to shield any man, or set of men accused of murder. Regardless of who has been accused, rich or poor, powerful or insignificant, the party has never yet offered defense.

The Commercial Club of Campbellsville is taking things as they appear. The tobacco and a canning factory dis-

but lively. The differences were adjusted last week by concessions from Company and employees, and the city is again enjoying peace and prosperity. For a few days the situation looked ugly but by wise management from all interests affected, an agreement was reached binding for one year. The bayonet and gattling gun were not used, and but little damage was done. Arbitration is, after all, a greater power than the average person may suppose. Appeal to reason; offer the right and nine times in ten it will be successful. The working class, the wage earners, are not all too exacting, and corporations are not all deaf to a fair adjustment of differences, nor indifferent to the honest demands of their employees.

A proposition to put in water works in Campbellsville is now up and from the recent past it would be a safe bet 10 to one that it goes. As we understand $10,000 is to be secured in the sale of stock in the company and $10,000 to be secured by the sale of bonds. It will be a go and it will be the best and wisest move yet made to the building of Campbellsville.

ORDINATION SERVICES.

There will be ordination services at the Christian Church next Sunday morning. Four deacons will be ordained. The subject for Sunday morning will be Ordination. Qualification, and duties of elders and deacons of the Church of Christ. There will be special music morning and evening. On account of inclement weather this service was postponed the meeting day.

DIED NEAR GLENSFORK.

Mrs. Josephine Taylor, widow of the late Simon P. Taylor, of the Glensfork country, died Monday March 18th. The deceased was a member of the Christian Church and a very estimable lady. She is survived by two children, Mr. Sam and Miss Annie Taylor, and a granddaughter, Miss Lela Connor, of this city.

NO. 1148 A. S. H. R.

The Best Breeder that ever Sired a Colt and one that gets more colts than any living horse; and colts that sell for more money than any horse in Kentucky. Will stand at Gradyville, Ky., this season at the low price of $15.00 to insure a colt. Jordan Peacock has sired more High Priced colts than any Horse I ever knew in Kentucky. There has been more money spent in Adair county for this Horse's Colts in the last 10 years than there has for all other Stallions combined. You can pay $15.00 for seasons to JORDAN and get two to three times as much clear money as any others. Coffey Bros., & Young paid J. P. Clayton $600.00 for a two-year-old, and a number of others have sold from $500.00 to $2,000.00.

Now if you want a fine Colt and one that you can sell at any time for a Fancy Price, bring your mares to JORDAN and get it. When you breed to him you are not breeding to something that is unknown.

JORDAN PEACOCK has a National Reputation; his colts are being bought and shipped East to New York City, Boston, Texas and a number of other places where fine horses are wanted.

Kentucky King,

Four years old, sired by Red Squirrel, No. 53; dam by Alexander Lexington, he by Cabbells Lexington 2; dam by Artess No. 75. KENTUCKY KING is a full brother of Silver King that won the championship at the St. Louis World's Fair and later sold for $2,000.00. Will make the season at $15.00 to insure a Living Colt. KENTUCKY KING is full 16 hands and is a fine combined horse. Bring your mares to my stock if you want something good. Money due when Colt is foaled or mare traded or leaves the neighborhood. Mares fed at cost of feed. Pasture after May the 1st. at 50 cents per week.

AR ED--The German Coach Horse.

This horse, great in breeding, size, form and strength is the one so badly needed in this part of the country. One of the most pressing needs in horses is size and that should not be overlooked by those who desire to breed. In Arwed the German Coach Horse, you get size, form and action, the three essentials to an all round desirable horse. His first colts were foaled last Spring and out of the entire number there is not a weakling nor one that shows beefy makeup. They are game, neat and fine size and some of them approaching models. No one who appreciates size with form and other desirable features can find a flaw in a single colt. He will serve at $70 to insure a living colt.

PEDIGREE.—ARWED, No. 2732, sired by Achim, No. 1029; he by Achilles, No. 1313, Dam, Ardo, No. 1000 by Agammannon, No. 560. Arwed is a beautiful brown horse, 16 hands high and weighs 1250 pounds. He is a model horse in size and action.

TWO FINE JACKS.

WALLACE WOOD, a fine double jack, will serve at $7. He is 15 1/2 hands high and has proven his worth in siring Jacks as well as half breeds.

WALLACE WOOD was sired by Gov. Wood, he by Wood's Black Jack, Tip Top, he by Peter's Black Hawk, he by Royal Mammoth, he by Old Painted Mornings Mammoth. Dam by Mr. J. H. Wood, 16 hands high, fourth dam by Tom Seltzer's Mammoth.

Arwed is a beautiful brown horse, 16 hands high and weighs 1250 pounds. He is a model horse in size and action. He has proven himself an excellent breeder. Some of his colts sold last year for $100.00. He will serve at $25 to insure a living colt.

All care will be taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur. Mares will be fed at cost and pastured at $2.00 per month after May 1st. Parties desiring further information address

Mr. Almon Richards, of Russell Springs was in this community last week.

Mrs. Maupin, who has been sick, has recovered. Also Mrs. G. J. Hurt, but there are several down yet with gripe.

MOODY.

Editor Adair County News:

As the "pike" is still the absorbing interest of conversation in this section and some seems to have conscientious scruples about paying toll in a "free country" will say this in vindication of this method of road building over taxation, the users of the road pay for the repairs if you payed it in the form of taxes you would pay the collector a per cent and when payed would have no control over it. This way you would control it as any other stock, now the way to secure dividends from this stock is to make this road so thoroughly good that every body will love to travel it. Make it everybody's road by every one in reach of it contributing to its building, it will be educational.

We may from this point note the passing away of three old people who were decedents of old families, Mrs. Lizzie Mitchell Bratton, of Gresham, who died the 27th ult. in the 63 year of her age, was a resident of Columbia a short time last year, was loved for her strong faith and energy and generous hospitality, was repeatedly paralyzed. She leaves two sons who have bought out Alonza Buchanan, and gone into merchandising—have a good trade.

Mr. R. A. Taylor, near Greensburg, in his 84 year was a typical Ky., gentleman of the days when her hospitality was famous.

Mr. Daniel Moore, of Campbellsville, who passed away the 9th, in the 84th year of his age, was a grandson of one of the pioneers of the Presbyterian church, Ebenezer. John Moore 50 years ago was a resident of Greensburg, has since lived at Campbellsville, an honored Elder in the church at that place.

Born, to the wife of O. Hatcher on the 7th, a son.

W. W. Mitchell, of Greensburg has been quite sick for some time with gripe.

Farmer are getting behind with their work, owing to wet weather.

Rumor says we will have a wedding here this week.

"In 1897 I had a stomach disease. Some physicians said Despesia, some Consumption, one said I would not live until Spring. For four years I existed on boiled milk, soda biscuits, and doctors' prescriptions. I could not digest anything I ate; then I picked up one of your Almanacs and it happened to be my life-saver. I bought a fifty-cent bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received from that bottle all the gold in Georgia could not buy. In two months I went back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. May you live long and prosper."—C. N. Cornell, Roding, Ga., 1906. The above is only a sample of the great good that is daily done everywhere by Kodol for Dyspepsia. It is sold here by Page & Dohoney.

WITH OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Week's Happenings—News Important or Otherwise as Reported By Our Corps of Correspondents.

GRADYVILLE.

We are thankful for one day of sunshine.

W. L. Grady was in Columbia last Friday.

James Diddle was in Greensburg last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. J. J. Hunter was on the sick list a day or so of last week. Mr. D. C. Wheeler had a fine mule to get its leg broken one day last week.

Mr. J. D. Flowers, of Columbia, was by the bed-side of his sick brother last Saturday.

Mr. John F. Shaw, the well-known clothing man, of Carthage, Tennessee, was with our merchants one day last week.

Remember, we will have Easter services at this place. Everybody invited to attend.

Mrs. L. C. Nell, who has been sick for several days, we are glad to note is improving at this time.

Miss Mollie Flowers and Paul Wilson, students of the Lindsay-Wilson, spent last week at their homes in our city.

Mr. Levi Dulin, the popular barber, of Edmonton, way shaking hands with his friends in our town last Monday.

Miss Clara Wilmore and brother, Austin, attended the tacky party at the Columbia Hotel last Friday night.

Uncle George Flowers, who has been in a critical condition for some time, is improving.

Mr. J. A. Diddle, who has been in Quannah, Texas for the past three weeks, returned home last Saturday.

Mr. Henry Gaskin, one of Sparksville's business men, spent a day or so in our town last week.

Mr. Jesse Breeding, one of the best farmers on Leatherwood creek, was in our town last Friday on business.

Mr. James Compton, of Rocky Hill Station, was in our midst one day last week looking well.

Mr. J. T. Hamilton, of Nell, was with us last Thursday looking after a few good hogs to complete a car-load.

Miss Mary Caldwell, who is in school at Columbia, spent last Saturday and Sunday at her home near this place.

Our town is full up with horses six days in the week, preparatory for 25 cent shoeing all around. Now is the time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Moss entertained quite a number of their friends one day last week.

Messrs. W. C. Yates, Tom Waggener and R. L. Davis, of Portland, was in our town last Thursday, and reports plenty of high water and wind in their section.

Mr. J. O. Moore, one of the prosperous farmers of the Weed community, was in our town one day last week, and informed us that he was thinking of making a visit to the Lone Star State in the near future.

Rev. W. W. Sexton, one of our best citizens, has been confined to his room for several days with gripple.

We feel safe in saying that there is thirty thousand of as good staves for sale near this place as was ever put on the market in this section.

Messrs. Corbin & Rowe, the hustling timber men, of Sparksville, were in our midst one day last week looking after staves.

We are glad to note that our community so far as we know, have no new cases of measles, and all the old ones have about recovered.

Messrs. Ed Atkins and S. C. Neat, grocery drummers, of Columbia, made our town last week.

Mrs. Peter Compton, who has been confined to her room for four or five years with a complication of diseases, took the measles a few weeks ago, but has about recovered, and reports that she feels better in every respect than she has for five years, and has a better appetite. The indications are that caae of measles will restore this lady to health.

Mr. William Wilson, aged about 70 years, died at his home in the Western part of this county, on the 12th, with a complication of diseases.

Gov. J. R. Hindman, of Columbia, was in our midst last Friday and reported that while down in Texas a few weeks ago, he met a great many ex-Kentuckians, and they are all doing good business and are well pleased. While here the Governor and Charles Rowe, the Justice of the Peace, of Sparksville, brought up the road question.

Their plans and ideas of making good roads in this country, is exactly with ours, and we trust at its next meeting the Fiscal Court will take up this all important subject, and devise some plans whereby we may have better roads. If it has to come to taxation, let it come, anything that will bring about a system of better public highways. We all know that we have the material and the labor can be had cheap. The only thing we need is to push the matter.

Mr. James England, one of Sparksville's best citizens, was transacting business in our town last Saturday.

FONT HILL.
